Day 2: Granite Dells / Bearizona / Williams

Begin the day with a bike ride on the Peavine / Iron King Trail through Prescott's beautiful Granite Dells north of town • This crushed stone and dirt converted rail-trail travels through an oasis in the sunbaked desert • After a one hour transfer to the town of Williams, sit down to lunch at a local restaurant • While in Williams, you have to check out Bearizona • It may sound cheesy, but you'll experience this drive-thru and walk-around wildlife park with your knowledgeable guide who will give you a behind-the-scenes tour of the exhibits and animals who call this place home • You'll see bears, bighorn sheep, bison, wolves, and many more animals who once roamed wild across the American west • After checking into our hotel, the night is free for you to explore and eat dinner in the funky town of Williams, located on the historic Route 66! • Overnight Grand Canyon Railway Hotel (B, L)

Day 3: Grand Canyon Railway / South Rim of the Grand Canyon

Day 5: Tusayan / Walnut Canyon National Monument / Sedona

Today we say goodbye to the Grand Canyon as we head south out of the Park • We'll bike the scenic Greenway Trail through ponderosa pine forests ending our ride in the small town of Tusayan near the park's south entrance • Lunch at a local spot in Flagstaff • This afternoon, we check out Walnut Canyon National Monument • A loop trail takes us down into the canyon passing 25 cliff dwelling rooms constructed by the Sinagua, a pre-Columbian cultural group that lived in Walnut Canyon from about 1100 to 1250 CE • Continue your transfer to Sedona, check into the hotel and eat a final dinner at a lovely local spot in town • Overnight Best Western Plus Arroyo Roble & Creekside Villas (B, L, D)

Activities

Hiking: 2 to 5 miles per hike, mostly easy to moderate terrain. We would consider the uphill to climb out of the Grand Canyon via the South Kaibab Trail to be strenuous as you will be hiking up 1,000 feet over 1.5 miles. Don't worry, we'll take lots of breaks!

Biking: 7 to 14 miles per ride on easy to moderate terrain. The Peavine / Iron King Trail near Prescott is crushed gravel and dirt, mostly flat. Other paths and/or roadways we cycle are paved with little traffic.

Kayaking: 2 to 3 hour inflatable kayaking float trip down a Class I section of the Salt River. No experience necessary, guides will provide detailed instruction.

Discovery: Widely considered as one of the world's most spectacular canyons, the Grand Canyon is one of the "Natural Wonders of the World." Called Kaibab by the Paiute Indian tribe, meaning "mountain lying down" or "mountain turned upside down," the creamy white Kaibab Limestone forms the surface on which you'll stand on while viewing the Canyon. Were you aware that the Grand Canyon is neither the deepest, longest, or widest canyon in the world; however, many consider it to be the most inspiring. Check out the blonde, cinnamon, chocolate and black North American black bears of Bearizona as they tumble around together and clumsily climb the trees in their habitat. Did you know that up until 1951 visitors climbed a series of three ladders to enter Montezuma Castle; that same year; Interstate 17 was complete and visitation skyrocketed. Concerns for both safety and structure (which is 90% original) led to the removal of the ladders. Come play in Arizona with the experts in adventure travel!
