Our Partner – Vapues Tours

Austin Adventures is proudly offering this trip in conjunction with Vapues Tours. When founder Jan Strik traveled to Nicaragua for the first time, in the late 1990s, he heard a typical catchphrase over and over: "va pues", meaning "all right". When he founded the company, back in 2002, he did not need to think twice on how to name it, and Vapues Tours was born. In those days, tourism in Nicaragua had barely set off- but the great potential was already right before their eyes. Tourism steadily grew over the years, and new and exciting properties opened their doors, while the general infrastructure improved, and new destinations were unlocked. Presently, more and more tourists are welcomed in Nicaragua each year, attracted by jubilant news articles, or enthusiastic first hand stories from friends, still the country manages to maintain its authentic atmosphere. Vapues Tours has grown steadily as well, and is now one of the country's leading tour operators, with a wide understanding of what tourists seek and need. Vapues is keen to share not only the well-known attractions, but also the hidden gems; innovation is one of their key assets.
